Thank you to our community partners...

The Gabriel Project (TGP) was blessed this quarter; it benefited from few fundraising activities held by community partners. The Concord Grocery Outlet chose the TGP as the fundraiser recipient for their Independence for Hunger Campaign held during July. On September 1st, Mr. Davi Charma presented a $10,000 check to Queen of all Saints-Gabriel Project staff from the fundraised amount. During May and June, TGP had a couple of other fundraisers from community partners that in the last communication were not mentioned.

On May 8th, a studio recital event, "Front Porch Recital," was held by Elizabeth Hunter Ashley, a professional Lyric Coloratura Soprano, in the company of other colleagues. The event raised over $1,000 in donations for TGP. (Elizabethhuntesirashley.com)

In June, Christ the King Catholic Church organized a Baby Shower for TGP. Parishioners donated many new and gently used baby items and over $800 in gift cards for new moms and needed families.
